Guests had dinner wearing blindfolds.

Taste of the Shadows Held By Center For Vision Loss

The Center for Vision Loss held its annual Taste of the Shadows vision loss awareness fundraising dinner on Thursday, October 13 at Green Pond Country Club, Bethlehem. The event has proven to be a unique way to help people understand the impact of vision loss and how the agency supports, encourages and empowers people with vision loss to improve the quality of their lives.

The 85 guests first enjoyed hors d'oeuvres, a wine tasting by Franklin Hill Vineyards and a craft beer tasting by the Allentown Beverage Co. They also tested their luck by participating in a mystery box raffle.

The essence of the event then followed when the sighted guides assigned to each table gathered their guests together and asked them to wear blindfolds for the walk to their seats in the dining room.

The blindfolded diners first enjoyed chopped salad, chicken breast with tarragon-mustard sauce, risotto and broccoli. Following the entrée, the guests removed their blindfolds and tried eat-

Lions, Lioness, Leo Clubs Give $35,350 at CVL Needs Breakfast

The Lions and Lionesses of District 14-K carried on an 88-year partnership in style on Saturday morning, Oct. 22 in Northampton. Center for Vision Loss CEO Douglas Yingling said it is this length of time that Northampton County's Lions have leant their support to the blind associations of this area, the latest being CVL.

It was at the "Needs Breakfast", replacing the original needs nights that the Lions and Lioness Clubs and Leo clubs gave $35,350. Last year the amount raised was $50,345, and it is expected much more money will be coming in from the clubs who were not present.

Yingling said the money goes to many vital vision programs and services in the Lehigh Valley, even such things as special children's activities and a sock hop.

Cards and patches of special colors, indicating the range of donations made last year, were presented by Yingling, as follows:

RED (Up to $99) - Parkland High School Leos, Pen Argyl High School Leo Club.

ORANGE ($100 to $499) - Catasaquaque Lions, Coopersburg Lions, Coplay Lions, Forks Township Lionesses, Lower Lehigh Lionesses, Northampton Area Lionesses, Ontelaunee Lions, Plainfield Township Lions, Richmond Lions, and Whitehall High School Leo Club.

BLUE ($1,000 to $2,499) - Bethlehem Township Lions, Easton Lions, Hellertown Lions, Intl. Assn. of Lions Clubs District 14-K, Mountainville Lions, Saucon Valley Lions, Slatedale-

Visits Very Encouraging;
Members Joining Clubs

October has certainly been a busy month. 1st VDG Don Kaufman and I have visited 11 clubs so far. Each visit has been a wonderful experience. Don and I have enjoyed our visits and have been very impressed with the many activities planned for each club's community. Part of my message is to offer examples of how clubs can qualify for the four areas of service emphasis during this centennial celebration year. At a recent meeting, Don and I had a very nice brainstorming session during which it was discovered that the club did many activities which met the four challenge areas. I encourage you to spend time reviewing all of your events, and I'm sure you will be surprised that your club definitely meets the centennial challenges. Speaking of the Centennial Service Challenge, we as Lions have served 112,393,776 folks!! Please remember to report your activities to LCI.

An added honor while visiting clubs has been the installation of new members. It has been my privilege to welcome one member to Hanover Township, two members to Upper Lehigh, three members to Whitehall, and seven members to Hellertown. I am very encouraged by this trend. As a district, we have a representative from LCI, Ronnie Martin, coming March 5, 2017 to help start a new club in Allentown. We are very excited to have Ronnie. Some of us have had the pleasure to hear Ronnie speak, and we are convinced that he is the right person to give us the tools necessary to start a new club. If you would like to know more about Ronnie, check the October issue of the Lion magazine, page 29.

Besides the club visits, it has been a busy season for the LEOs. The clubs are engaging in many activities, and I have had the honor to install officers at the Northwestern Lehigh and Northern Lehigh clubs. I will be installing officers at the Whitehall and Parkland club next month. There is good news that Emmaus High School will have a LEO club very soon. That will bring the number of LEO clubs to 10. This is just amazing. I do encourage Lions clubs to consider sponsoring a LEO club in their areas. Don't be discouraged if your local high school says they don't need another club. My question has always been, are the current clubs meeting the needs of all students? Make that your mantra.

We still need someone to fill the position of District LEO advisor, Zone chair for Region II, Zone A, and a one-year position on the Hearing Research committee. It's time to consider stepping forward as a candidate for Second Vice District Governor. This position is vital. Having 2nd Vice District Governor Karlene Laub on board this year has made a very positive impact on our district. Be assured, that if you do step forward, you will receive the necessary training and support from your fellow Lions.

Happy Thanksgiving to All of you!

DG Marsha Johnston

PID Wayne Davis And Wife Both Die

District 14-K has been informed that Mrs. Marjorie

Davis, wife of Past International Director Wayne E. Davis of Virginia, has passed away. Not long after, we learned that PID Davis, who was a previous speaker at one of 14-K's annual conventions, had also died.

Lion Marge, as everyone called her, was a member of the Middletown Children First Lions Club and served several terms as club president.

Always enthusiastic about service, she conducted eye screenings, attended conventions and meetings, and wore a welcoming smile. Her outgoing personality made everyone who met her feel welcome and important. Marge's kind and caring ways extended far beyond those in need. An LCI staff member remembers her during board meetings, coming into the board office or wherever she was with an infectious smile and always making you feel special.

For her dedication to the association, she received the Membership Key, 10-year Monarch, and was a progressive Melvin Jones Fellow. Lion Marge gave with an open heart and always had a little more to give, no matter what Services were held on Sunday, Sept. 18 at the Omph Funeral Home, Winchester, Va. Please remember the family in your thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.

PID Davis' home address is 117 Laurel Hill Drive, Stephens City, VA 2655-2216.

On October 20, we learned that PID Wayne Davis passed away the previous day. No funeral information received as yet.

On Sick List

PDG Willard Kulp is hospitalized. Please remember him in your prayers and send a "thinking of you" card.

Just a Little Umph

Lions:

It's a great time to be a Lion!

(1) Club visitations are a great way to meet neighboring Lions and learn who they are and what they do in their community. Sharing "how to" stories concerning fundraisers or helping needy people are two benefits that make it worthwhile. Sometimes two Clubs decide to work together on a project that is too big for one Club to achieve alone.

(2) Cabinet and Zone Meeting attendance in the month of November should be encouraged by all. Reach out to your fellow Club members and plan to attend the District meetings as scheduled. Support your District Lions who dedicate many hours each month providing help and information to local Clubs like yours. Remember that our District Lions all belong to a local Club, too, and have your best interest at heart.

(3) Increase your Lion knowledge by visiting the LCI website. If you don't have a computer or an internet connection at home - you can visit a public library and use their computers. Click on MEMBERS CENTER and then RESOURCES. Here you will find LEADERSHIP RESOURCE CENTER. You will see many member resources, including logos, program guides and forms to help you including training and development programs to promote personal growth and leadership excellence.

(4) Membership Webinars can also be found on the LCI website. These webinars provide an opportunity for Lions to learn about various membership programs and discuss membership topics. Panelists are made up of Lions from around the world and Membership Development Division staff. Visit the Membership Webinar Archive where you will find a list of available links to previous webinars.

Club Secretaries
Run the Ship

The busy holiday schedule is before us. Our time with our families is as important as our time helping those in our community and extended community. Although I've been busy, I am enjoying the things I am learning as 2nd VDG. This month I'd like to send a shout out to all our secretaries. From the 14-K Cabinet secretary to our club secretaries, these dedicated Lions wear many hats. They are the Lions who keep our organization organized. They are responsible for keeping accurate and complete records. They forward copies of the minutes to all members. They attend Zone meetings to pass on information from District and LCI. They send and receive correspondence and pass the info on to members. They provide information to the newsletter editors. I could go on and on. There are too many jobs to mention. Many of the jobs are behind the scenes and members do not realize all they do to keep the club running smoothly. As many of you heard me say in my "Secretaries Seminar" at the conventions, "The President may be the Captain but the Secretary runs the ship."

One of the things I like to do is to make sure I take at least one new idea or bit of knowledge away from any training session. Many times, training sessions tend to be things we've heard before, although a refresher is always good. However, it is never a waste of time if you learn at least one new thing that you can use to improve your life or the life of someone else. Recently, I attended the Eastern Division Membership and Leadership Workshop. The presenter said something that I am proud to say I use in my everyday life. "Lead by Example". Never ask someone to do something you wouldn't do yourself. Never fear failure. That is how you learn. If you don't take risks, you will never learn how to overcome barriers. These are things I knew before I went to the workshop, BUT what I didn't know is that Melvin Jones was not the President of the first club. He was the secretary! Yes, the secretary. He felt that from that position, he could steer the club in the right direction.

So, this month, I'd like to tip my hat to all you secretaries who steer the ship (sometimes in uncharted waters) and keep those clubs moving in the right direction. I encourage all Lions to "Lead by Example". Step up and take a role as an officer in your club or in District 14-K. Don't be afraid to take a risk. You will certainly learn from the experience.

Following dinner, Doug Yingling, Executive Director, introduced the premiere of the agency's new video. The video, developed and produced by Al Kalbach, Daymarks Productions, features stories from 6 clients whose lives have been touched by the Center for Vision Loss. Doug presented Al with a Certificate of Recognition for his work. If you wish to view this video go to www.centerforvisionloss.org <http://www.centerforvisionloss.org>.

Doug then introduced the 2016 Accessibility Champion Award recipients. Accessibility Champions are chosen because they have presented outstanding accessible opportunities for individuals with vision loss to become more involved in various aspects of community life.

This year's champions all developed audio-described and tactile opportunities to include visually impaired individuals in the local arts scene. Recipients included the Allentown Art Museum of the Lehigh Valley, Lehigh University Art Galleries Teaching Museum, Lehigh Valley Arts Council and Stephen W. Cunic, photographer.

CEO Remarks

In his remarks early on, Yingling said organizations like the Lions represent the background of America. "We need groups like this to remind us of what we have." He continued, "Lions are an optimistic organization and I feel Leos will pick up the ball." Yingling added that he would award a 100-year pin to PDG John Kratzer and a 70-year pin to his father who had macular degeneration. His fellow members picked him up and he never missed a meeting. To all of you I offer words of encouragement. Keep up the good work."

A video was shown on the Center for Vision Loss and comments from clients who said they received excellent care. Several members of staff were introduced.

Memorial Braille Library Opened by CVL

In September, the Center for Vision Loss proudly opened the Gary John Posch, Jr. Memorial Braille Library in the Lehigh Valley Office in Allentown.

Gary owned the almost 400 volumes included in this library. He lost his vision to retinitis pigmentosa and learned to read braille at the age of 13. Reading was important for Gary because he believed that it allowed him to see the world. When Gary passed away in 2013 at the age of 36, his parents Brenda and Gary Posch, Bethlehem, donated his collection to the Center for Vision Loss.

Volunteers Amy Crowe and Maureen Fernbacher then set about the 18-month task of organizing the collection and creating a card catalog that included braille descriptions. The diversity of the collection is impressive ranging from books about each state to baseball biographies and cookbooks that appeal to both children and adults.

Rita Lang, Manager of Innovative Programming is in charge of the library. The library is open Tuesdays and Thursdays from 1-4 pm by appointment made at least a week in advance. Books can also be borrowed from the library. For more information contact Lang at 610-3433-6018 x 225 or rita.lang@centerforvisionloss.org

Jay and Linda Astheimer of Pen Argyl stand by their winning 1929 Chrysler at the Moore Township Lion/Lioness car show.

'29 Chrysler Earns 'Best' In Moore Twp. Car Show

The Moore Township Lions and Lioness Clubs held their 20th annual car show on Sunday, September 18 at the Moore Township Recreation Center. They had in excess of 100 vintage cars and trucks, all spit and polished to a high gloss. What a chore it was to choose the vehicle deemed "Best In Show". However, after much deliberation, the prize and trophy were awarded to Linda and Jay Astheimer of Pen Argyl.

Their presentation was a magnificent burgundy with red trim 1929 Chrysler Model 75 with rumble seat coupe. Not only did it have a large trunk attached to the rear, it also had a small door on the side of the car for storing golf clubs. How neat is that? Under the hood was a straight flat head 6 cylinder, 248.9 cubic inch engine with 23.35 horsepower. Besides being the top winner at the car show, this 1929 Chrysler, according to Linda, Jay's girlfriends thought it was a winner also because Jay used this vintage car to squire his girlfriends about during his dating days.

In addition to the large number of automobiles, there also were flea markets to check out and several food stands if you got hungry. Lioness Rochelle Rinker was chairlady for the food stand. Kudos to her for her hard work in seeing that the stands were stocked with breakfast sandwiches, hot dogs, hamburgers, pierogies and french fries as well as homemade cabbage and noodles, sausage sandwiches with pepper and onions and pork barbecue, along with beverages, ice cream and shoofly pie.

As the patrons looked over the cars or got something to eat, they were serenaded by a DJ throughout most of the day. Some of the folks enjoyed the music so much that they chose to find a chair just to sit and listen.

After raffle winners were announced, thanks were given to all who came out to help the Lions and Lionesses raise money for the sight-impaired as well as other worthy charities.

Convention Committee Making Good Progress for March 2017

The committee planning the 2017 convention of District 14-K has met in September and October. The next meeting is Monday, November 14, downstairs at Christ U.C.C. Church, Airport Road.

Already, at this early date, significant progress is being made in the planning for the Saturday and Sunday, March 25 and March 26 event at the Holiday Inn Conference Center.

As you know, PDG Linwood Gehris and his wife, Lion Gail Gehris, will have charge of the registration and their names and address will be listed on the registration form coming out in early January 2017.

The opening session will be Saturday from 7:45 to 8:45 a.m., when nominees will be named, and the PID speaker will have a few comments.

Lion Silas Rodenbach announced that the displays by vendors will be the same as in the 2016 convention with PDG Gehris, for they were very informative.

The keynote speaker will be PID Brian Sheehan of Minnesota. DG Marsha Johnston is firming up arrangements and PID Sheehan's wife, Lion Lori, will be invited to do a seminar.

Lion Nancy Keller will be the tail twister for the convention luncheon.

This is the tentative schedule of seminars for Saturday morning:

- Presidents seminar, from 9:00 to 10:30, presented by 1st VDG Don Kaufman and 2nd VDG Karlene Laub.

- Secretary seminar, also from 9:00 to 10:30, and a presenter is needed.

- "Tricks, Treats and Tips", 10:45 to 11:45, presented by Lion Nancy Keller.

- "Marketing Your Club", 10:45 to 11:45. 1stVDG Kaufman may have a presenter.

- "Club Success Stories" 9:00 to 10:30, presented by PDG Glen Santee. A one-hour slot is available for either Lion Lori Sheehan or an extension of the success stories seminar.

PDG Joe Chunko is Peace Poster chairman. There are several applicants and there will be three winners.

A letter will be sent to Stephen Cunic, who paints pictures that can be touched by the visually impaired. He will speak to the Leos.

Lion-Lioness Kathy Dieter with help of Lehigh Twp. Lionesses will make up baskets.

Instead of a Melvin Jones luncheon, this year the Melvin Jones Fellowships will be presented after the PID's speech at the Saturday night convention banquet, with PDG Fred Folland in charge. Social hour (with fruit and cheese tray) will begin at 5:00 p.m. with a cash bar and dinner will begin at 6:00 p.m.

More info will be printed as it becomes available.
